Middle School Illorai visits Rally d'Italia Sardegna Service Park, Olbia

For years, the School D.Filia of Illorai, which participates in numerous sporting activities, recognises that sport is of great educational value. In particular, the school is aware of the dedication, commitment, sacrifice, respect of the rules, and the adversary that exists behind every champion and his/her team. It intends to teach these principles to its students and apply them to classical education. As a result, the project has been promoted as "The rally goes to school" and the school has selected six pupils who have met the criterions of conduct, commitment, interest and scholastic results to participate in the Rally d'Italia Sardegna.

On Thursday 15 May, before Shakedown, the six selected students will be accompanied by three teachers and visit the World Rally Championship Service Park site at Cala Saccaia in Olbia.

First, they will visit the motorhome of the Pirelli, who are promoting of the initiative. Sardinian Pirelli technician, Terenzio Testoni, will explain to the students all the secrets of the tyres used by the stars of the World Rally Championship. Secondly, Ford's Team Manager Malcolm Wilson will speak to the students together with drivers Mikko Hirvonen and Jari-Matti Latvala, in the team's motorhome. Following on, Tajima San, the man responsible for the Japanese team Suzuki, will host the students with drivers Toni Gardemeister and PG Andersson. In the afternoon Subaru drivers Petter Solberg and Chris Atkinson will let the students in on their secrets. The fortunate students will end the day with an experience of full immersion in the Service Park visiting the stands of the Sardinian crews.
