dal 15 al 18 Maggio 2008 – Guida per gli spettatori/Spectators Guide

Guide to the Rally d'Italia Sardegna 2008

This Guide to the Rally d'Italia Sardegna 2008, the Italian appointment with the FIA WRC scheduled from 15th to 18th May 2008, will give valid and simple help to all spectators, in order to follow the event in the best way.

This guide, edited by Davide Orecchioni and Mario Ciulino, has been prepared in a simplified way, in order to allow everybody to get a clear and precise idea about the Special Stages, the staged spectator areas, the access roads, and about the facilities and other help offered by the organization.

Please take note of the following suggestions to read the guide in the best way:

- Zone A: at km....from the start: the alphabetic letters show the public zone and its distance from the start of the Special Stage.
- Access road: suggested itinerary to get to the public zone.
- Notes: suggestions and rules.

In order to integrate the Guide, at the main crossroads nearby area of the Special Stages, you will find special road signs arrow shaped with different colours, depending on the day (light purple for the Shakedown, red for the first day, yellow for the third day). In this way it will easily helped to reach the public zones.

We take the opportunity to let you know that the green road signs is reserved to the media. Please ignore it, if it wouldn't be followed by others coloured road signs, so you do not hinder the important job of journalist and photographers.

In order to enjoy the great show offered by the racing teams in the safest way, you are kindly requested to fully cooperate in respecting the simple rules as described below:

- If you decide to reach the Special Stages before traffic is prohibited, you must park your vehicle far away from the road and from exits used by the emergency services; otherwise the programmed SS will be cancelled with heavy consequences to the organization and to the show.
- In the event that you reach the public areas using the indications given, please respect what is written clearly in the Guide: if your vehicles are particularly bulky, i.e. campers, or extremely low, you must not to be in the other's way. You can reach different but spectacular moments of the Special Stage
- In order to allow a proper flow and outflow of spectators and vehicles, you are kindly requested to drive and to park in a safe way, so you do not hinder the others rally fans.
- Once you have reached your chosen area public area, you are kindly requested to follow the Marshals and Police's suggestions, in orders to reach the zones cordoned off in green.
- Please do not stay in the nearby zones that have been signposted in red because they are extremely dangerous for your safety. A wrong behaviour could signify the cancellation of the SS, with heavy consequences to the Organization and to the Show.
- 45min before the beginning of the race, the Security Chief will fly over the Special Stage in the marked 1 helicopter to evaluate the race safety and to authorize or not the start of the race.
We ask you to be in a safety position and to not walk along the road of the actual stage.
- If you wish to leave a public area to follow the Stage, please use the numerous paths and fire barrier lines located nearby. Do not walk on the roads used to the Stage.
- You are kindly requested to respect the wonderful natural environment, that hosts the race, using the rules expressed in the document called: "Rules and regulations in the natural areas" written with the cooperation of the Corpo Forestale (Forest Rangers)
